Masterclass NWO VENI call 2023

Obtaining a VENI-grant from NWO is an important milestone in the research career of (young) scientists in the Netherlands. The Talent Scheme is highly competitive with average success rates between 10% and 25% depending on year and science division.

In this training we distinguish between the quality of the project and the quality of the written proposal text. Both have to be excellent to be successful.

We will address the typical characteristics of a VENI application considering the different NWO domains and incorporating recent developments including signature of the DORA agreement by NWO and the latest development regarding the evidence-based CV of the pre-proposal. In addition, focus will be on evaluation criteria for the PI, the research project and impact including their interrelationship and in combination with the proposal template.

This workshop is directed towards talented researchers who plan to submit VENI pre-proposal in September 2023 and possibly a full proposal in beginning 2024. Participants will receive strategic and practical input for developing a competitive VENI project and writing a convincing pre-proposal and full proposal thereby increasing their chances to receive this prestigious grant.

OUR TRAINING:

The training will be offered in Amsterdam by Aya van den Kroonenberg PhD, partner of Yellow Research as a 1-day workshop.

Topics of morning programme:

- Background and context, incl. evaluation procedure and criteria
- VENI project development in 8 steps
- Optimizing Societal Impact: Vision and Strategy

Topics of afternoon programme (focus on pre-proposal):

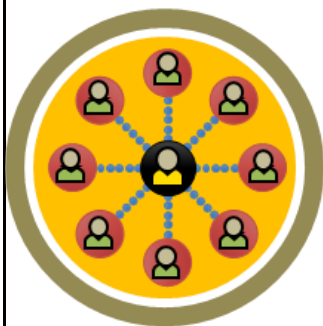

- VENI Pre-proposal writing: Evidence based CV with specific attention for scientific independence of PI
- Getting ready to write sections 2a+2b of full proposal: Description of the proposed research and Scientific and Societal Impact

A copy of the slides of the workshop and our Yellow Research Guide on VENI proposals will be made available via our E-learning environment.
